W&M acknowledges that this is a non-exclusive license; any copyrights in the submission remain with the author or other copyright holder/s and subsequent uses of the submitted material by that person(s) are not restricted by this license.

The author agrees that the College of William and Mary may keep more than one copy of this submission for purposes of security, back-up, and preservation.

The author represents that the submission covered by this license is his/her original work and that he/she has the right to grant this license to W&M Libraries at W&M. The author further represents that the submission does not, to the best of his/her knowledge, infringe upon any third party's copyright. If the submission contains material for which the author does not hold copyright the author represents that he/she has obtained unrestricted permission by authorization of the copyright holders, or by operation of the law, and that such third party material is clearly identified and acknowledged within the text or content of the submission. In the event of a subsequent dispute over the copyrights to material contained in this submission, the author agrees to indemnify and hold harmless W&M and its employees or agents for any uses of the material authorized by this license.

You certify that the version you are submitting is the same as that approved by your defense examination committee.

If the submission is based upon work that has been sponsored or supported by any agency or organization other than the College of William and Mary, the author represents that he/she has fulfilled any right of review or other obligation required by contract or agreement with the supporting entity.

Any Creative Commons license and/or delayed release period that you choose to assign to your dissertation and theses during the Proquest Submission process will also be published on your work in the Institutional Repository.

I agree to the terms of the Non-Exclusive Distribution License:
